

We condole with the family,

ROBERTO V. ONGPIN

1937 – 2023

A visionary. A technocrat.
A titan of industry. A leader.
A loving father and grandfather.

RVO will always be remembered for his forthrightness, his determination to succeed, his natural skill with numbers, and his style.

He was a problem solver, with the ability to simplify complex challenges. Only a few could match his business acumen.

RVO once said “I have had many setbacks but more successes.”

He will be missed.
